MOTION OF PETITIONER FOR MODIFICATION OR REDUCTION OF SENTENCE BASED UPON AN INTERVENING POST-SENTENCING CHANGE IN THE UNITED STATES
 SENTENCING GUIDELINES PERTAINING TO COROLLARY CRIMINAL HISTORY
 CATEGORY (AMENDMENT 12) WHICH EFFECTIVELY LOWERS PETITIONER'S TERM OF IMPRISONMENT

NOW INTO COURT COMES the Petitioner and Defendant herein, Audrey Miller appearing in and of her own behalf, as a pro se litigant, and respectfully moves this Honorable Court for an ORDER modifying and thus reducing her sentence of 300 months imprisonment, pursuant to this Honorable Court's jurisdictional authority as set forth and as contained in 18 United States Code § 3582
 (c) (2).

I. STATEMENT OF THE CASE

Petitioner/defendant in the underlying above-number criminal case, was sentenced by this Honorable Court, on or about July 21, 1995. Petitioner was sentenced by this Honorable Court to a term of imprisonment of 300 months, at Offense Level 34, with a Criminal History Category of VI, followed by a term of Supervised Release of 5 years. Petitioner is currently incarcerated and is serving her sentence at the Federal Correctional Institution at Federal Medical Center Carswell [SEE EXH. "A" Judgment in a Criminal Case].

Any detailed or extended statement of the facts of the case would be improper and unavailing, on the ground that Petitioner's instant motion for sentence reduction is, as a matter of law, a continuation of the criminal case and is not a civil post-conviction relief pleading. See, e.g., United States v. Fair, 326 F.3d 1317 (11th Cir. 2003), followed by the overwhelming sister circuits. Therefore, Petitioner herein does not seek to introduce new evidence or to argue or litigate the facts of the case. To the contrary, Petitioner's instant Motion pursuant to 18 United States Code § 3582 (c) (2) seeks a reduction of her term of imprisonment as a result of an intervening, post-sentencing change of the United States Sentencing Guidelines [hereinafter "USSG" or "the Guidelines"]. However, the current Advisory Guidelines apply.

II. AMENDMENTS TO THE GUIDELINES

On May 1, 2007 the United States Sentencing Commission [hereinafter "USSC" or "the Commission] sent to the United States Congress proposed changes to the Guidelines, which included inter alia, Amendment 12. The Criminal History to the Sentencing Guidelines -- Amend. 12 -- will effectively reduce Petitioner's sentence by two (2) Offense Levels -- from the current level 34 to a Level _____. The Commission stated in its "Reason for Amendment:

The Commission identified as a policy priority for amendment cycle ending May 1, 2007, "continuation of it's work with congressional, executive, and judicial branches of the government and other interested parties on cocaine sentencing policy, "including re-evaluating the Commission's 2002 report to Congress, Cocaine and Federal Sentencing Policy. [See, AMENDMENTS TO THE SENTENCING GUIDELINES, pp. 45-46]

Clearly, the Sentencing Commission recognizes the policy priority which should be accorded the disparities surrounding corollary criminal history. Petitioner respectfully submits that this Honorable Court so too will accord the same or similar priority status in ruling upon Petitioner's instant motion for a reduction in sentence.

The Criminal History Category (Amendment 12) to the Sentencing Guidelines addresses two critical areas of Chapter Four criminal history rules: the counting of multiple prior sentences and the use of misdemeanor and petty offenses in determining a defendant's criminal history score. It is respectfully requested that this Honorable Court grant unto Petitioner such other and further reduction of her sentence resulting from the Criminal History Category Amend. 12.

III. BASED UPON THE SUPREME COURT'S BOOKER DECISION ABOLISHING THE MANDATORY SENTENCING GUIDELINES IN ALL CONTEXTS THE BOOKER ADVISORY GUIDELINES APPLY TO PETITIONER'S INSTANT § 3582(c) MOTION FOR SENTENCE REDUCTION, THUS EMPOWERING THIS HONORABLE COURT TO CONSIDER THE § 3553(a) FACTORS, CALCULATE A NEW GUIDELINE RANGE AND RESENTENCE PETITIONER ACCORDINGLY

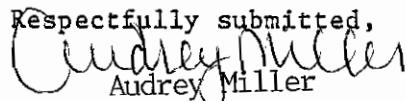

This Honorable Court in resentencing Petitioner herein, pursuant to this instant 18 U.S.C. § 3582(c)(2) to account for a post-sentencing U.S. Sentencing Guidelines amendment that reduces the applicable range of punishment, must apply the Guidelines as advisory, even though the old mandatory Guidelines were in effect at the time of Petitioner's original sentencing in this Court.

In United States v. Hicks, 472 F.3d 1167 (9th Cir. 2007), the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit held that where, as here, a defendant filed a motion to reduce his sentence pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §994(c), the Guidelines must be applied in an advisory manner. According to the Ninth Circuit's analysis, 'a mandatory system is no longer an open choice', as a result of the Supreme Court's decision in United States v. Booker, 543 U.S. at 263. Clearly, this Court, in resentencing Petitioner, has the discretion, pursuant to the now advisory Guidelines, to consider the factors set forth in § 3553(a), and calculate a new Guideline range, and issue a new sentence, accordingly.

IV. CONCLUSION

For the foregoing and aforeslated reasons, Petitioner herein respectfully requests this Honorable Court to apply the advisory Sentencing Guidelines to the instant resentencing 18 U.S.C § 3582 (c)(2) proceedings, notwithstanding that the old, mandatory Sentencing Guidelines were in force and effect at the time of this Court's orginal sentencing of Petitoner. Thus applying the post Booker advisory Guidelines and considering the factors set forth in § 3553(a), Petitioner requests this Honorable Court to apply a newly calculated range and then determine an appropriate sentence for Petitioner, accordingly.

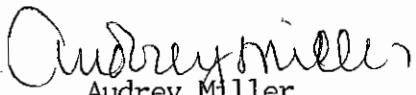

Petitioner further prays that this Honorable Court will grant unto her such other and further relief as may be deemed just and proper under the circumstances.

Respectfully submitted,

Audrey Miller
